StructureTec Corporation Receives Gazelle Recognition From the Michigan Economic Development Corporation

StructureTec was recognized as a Gazelle company by the Michigan Economic Development Corporation for outstanding growth since 2000. This recognition is given to a select group of companies in Michigan that grew in excess of 20% in revenues.

The recognition plaque was presented to the Board of Directors of StructureTec at their annual Corporate Dinner on May 10, 2002. During the dinner, Sergio Pagés, Vice President and Corporate Director, complimented the StructureTec team for achieving this outstanding growth, "Given the economic condition, being able to grow in excess of 20% speaks volumes of the StructureTec team. It also says a lot for the partnering relationships that StructureTec has with its clients," stated Mr. Pagés.

During the award ceremony, Bob Kittredge, Corporate Director of StructureTec and C.E.O. of Fabri-Kal, presented the plaque to Jeffrey Brittan, President/C.E.O., Robert Heasley, Corporate Treasurer, Sergio Pagés, Vice President/C.I.O., Charles Bell, Corporate Secretary and Brad Thompson, Corporate Advisor. Mr. Kittredge commended the Company for achieving this recognition and urged continuing efforts of comparable, profitable growth.

"Maintaining our existing quality of service, coupled with facility owners continuing to invest in their assets, creates an ideal environment for growth in 2002 and beyond," commented Mr. Pagés on receiving the Gazelle plaque.
